

Faculty Development Programme (FDP)

Basics of Corporate Governance

Why you should attend?

“Corporate Governance” (CG) has got great deal of attention during last few years, especially due to collapse of various corporate firms and financial institutions. There are huge gaps in the area of conceptual understanding and practicing corporate governance. Since corporate Governance has implications from Board room to classroom, it becomes imperative to know this term conceptually and practically. All stakeholders, directly or indirectly related to business entities, should have knowledge of CG.

There has been increase demand of implementing CG in all the business processes. Unawareness in this area may lead to inefficiency, poor performance and may cost companies to the great extent.

Through this programme, learner can understand

1. What is Corporate Governance?
2. Board and Corporate Governance
3. CG and investors' protection
4. Regulatory requirements and CG
5. How to read annual report of the company

This FDP will provide insights into Corporate Governance into global as well as in Indian context. Participants will be able to evaluate practices of corporate governance by the end of this FDP.
