SIMS MUN TEAM

There comes a time, when silence is betrayal.

Who are we?

The SIMS MUN lives by the motto, 'There comes a time, when silence is betrayal.' It encourages students to take on the roles of diplomats and parliamentarians to put forth their views and discuss actual global issues to come up with resolutions and find a way of doing things differently. We give them a platform to hone their debating and deliberation skills that not only helps them grow as individuals but also teach them to respect the opinions of others, thus making them 21st-century learners who are adaptive and critical thinkers in this changing world scenario.

What do we do?

Founded by the batch of 2013-15 with a vision of imparting cooperative, hands-on, experiential learning to students, they successfully organized and managed various intra and inter-college level events. The subsequent batches have kept the fourth and conducted Youth Parliaments and National Level Conclave. A monthly newsletter is also circulated that helps students be updated with what is happening around the globe.

We aim to broaden the world view amongst youth and help them discover the human side of international relations and diplomacy.
