

Euphoria

The day started with the ethnic day, where student managers were asked to be dressed in ethnic wear. It was a very successful show, as everyone enthusiastically dressed up in ethnics to class room. A unique sense of diversity was portrayed sportingly by all the students. This event was conducted in daytime when classes were going on!

highlight was the flagship event- Mr and Ms Euphoria.

Sur and Vibes performances showcased their talents adding a lively atmosphere to the event. A dedicated area was set up for the food stalls offering a wide array of fast food and snacks. Attendees had the opportunity to savour delicious food and refreshments.

Managerial games-

Logo quiz - In this game contestants had to guess the brand logo, that was being shown in the laptop. It was a buzzer round, so the person who guessed the logo had to clap quickly in order to speak, the first to clap was given the chance to answer, if the answer is correct, they will have to tell a little bit about the company.

Fun games-

Tip tip Barsa Paani- Tip-tip barsa paani was a fun game, in this solo game participants were given a straw and a glass of water, another empty glass which was across the table had to be filled with the water, that contestants will fill in the straw. It was a time based game, so the one to finish quick was the winner.

Saap ki chaal- Saap ki chaal was a partner game, where pairs of two were given a asymmetric parallel path and the contestants had to hold hands without breaking the bond and complete the path. This again was a time based game, the one to complete fast and without breaking the bond was the winner.

These activities fostered team spirit and healthy competition among attendees.\
